

AN UNSEEMLY SPECTACLE.

Already the men who are anxious to fill the Senatorial vacancy occasioned by the death of George Hearst, are in Sacramento dickering for votes.

It is in no way a question of fitness but purely a question of money. Of the men who are scheming for the position not one is fitted in any way that any body can mention.

The unseemly scramble has begun while the remains of the dead Senator are still above ground.

The clash of sacks has already begun at the Capital city of California. De Young, of the Chronicle has already openly announced that he would spend $300,000 for the place. He must be a simple minded ass if he ever made such an assertion. If he won after this announcement the office would make him ridiculous instead of honorable.

No man who spends a dollar for votes in Sacramento for this office, will be any thing more than a by-word and laughing stock among his fellow men. He will be on the same level with the fools in Europe, who purchase titles and Coats of Arms for coin.

It would be a great thing for California, if the press united on some man who was poor and able, and who was not scheming for the office, and call for his election.

The Democrats paid the Examiner a compliment, and a well deserved one, by electing its owner, George Hearst. Let the Republican press insist on being represented on his successor, and center on W. H. Mills, editor and manager of the Record-Union. He is a man who would make his mark in the U. S. Senate.

If he ever got the floor once, he would be listened to ever afterwards whenever he rose to speak. He is one of the clearest headed men of public affairs in California, and one of the smoothest and ablest debaters in the country.

He has never been subject to the big head, and is a manly, hard headed sensible fellow, whom no man ever meets without being impressed with the fact that Mills, by appearing as his natural self, can command attention and respect. He never needs to assume or pose and never does on any occasion.

Such a man would give this Coast a live and able representative, and the APPEAL believes that if the Republican press of California unite on him he can be elected, without intimidation or the use of boodle.

The Secretary of Agriculture has appointed a special agent to look after the sheep industry on the Pacific Coast. It is to be hoped that while he is about it he will look after the herders who ruin the mountain forests by burning to improve sheep feed. They need some very vigorous attention.

Senator Williams, of Ormsby, and his brother don't seem to hitch on very many things. They are almost always on the opposite sides of a question. Man-afraid-of-his-brother, would be a good appellation for either of them.

There is a wrangle over the Board of Equalization bill, as to who will be one of the Board. Three different interests are pulling respectively for Egan, Torreyson and Jones.

Indian Agent Warner from the Pyramid Reservation, says whisky, which the Indians say they do not make, is causing more trouble now among Indians off the reservation, than the Messiah craze.

It may be constitutional to cut down salaries of county officers, but at the rate the cutting is now going on, there will be some very cheap men in office before long.

Governor Colcord has designated Friday, the 3rd of April, as Arbor Day. This is to be regarded as a legal holiday for all public schools.

The bill consolidating offices in Ormsby has passed both houses. It saves $5000 a year.
